SCREEN INDUSTRY EXECUTIVE SALLY REGAN TO JOIN CREATE NSW

Respected screen industry executive Sally Regan is to join Create NSW. Create NSW Director of Sector Investment, Sophia Zachariou, today announced that Ms Regan will take up the position of Senior Manager, Sector Investment (Screen) next month.

The Senior Manager Sector Investment (Screen) leads and manages the team responsible for funding decisions in screen development and production.

Ms Regan has over 30 years experience working in the screen production sector. She has produced film and television in Australia, Europe, Asia and America and has, for the past five years, been a Drama Investment Manager at Screen Australia.

Previously Ms Regan worked as a Development and Production Executive at Screen NSW working across documentary, features and television drama and she was, from 1999 to 2003, Business Affairs Manager of Documentary Production at Film Australia, responsible for over production of over $6 million a year.

Her producer credits include the multi-award winning theatrical feature documentary thriller Forbidden Lie$ and she also co-produced the international Russell Crowe-featured series The Colour Of War, and produced the ABC documentaries National Treasures, Korean ANZAC, Peter Berner's Loaded Brush, Road To Tokyo and Nerves of Steel, amongst others.

In 2007 Ms Regan was awarded The Screen Producers Association Independent Documentary Producer of the Year Award and she was also awarded the Kenneth Myer Fellowship upon graduation from the Australian Film Television and Radio School (BA 1994).

"Sally is highly regarded for her expertise and professionalism across the screen sector and she brings considerable experience both in screen agencies and as a producer to this senior role at Create NSW. I'm thrilled she's joining us," said Sophia Zachariou, Director Sector Investment Create NSW.
